

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, EASTERN DIVISION

Arthur Sheridan, an individual, and Barbara Sheridan, an individual, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

Sirius XM Radio, Inc., a Delaware corporation;
and Pandora Media, Inc., a Delaware corporation,

Defendants.

No. 1:15-cv-09236

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

(JURY TRIAL DEMANDED)

I. INTRODUCTION<sup>1</sup>

1. Every satellite and internet radio service must ensure that its broadcasts of copyrighted sound recordings are authorized and must arrange to pay royalties before it publicly performs the sound recordings. Every satellite and internet radio service must also arrange to pay royalties to the owner of a sound recording each time the service reproduces the sound recording for purposes of archiving it, maintaining it, and streaming it online. If the radio service fails to arrange and pay required royalties, the use is unauthorized and infringes the sound recording's copyright. Although federal copyright law provides an automatic license and royalty rate for digital public performances of sound recordings created on or after February 15, 1972, no such automatic license exists for recordings created before that date. Instead, state law prohibits the unauthorized reproduction and performance of pre-1972 sound recordings.

2. Arthur Sheridan and Barbara Sheridan (collectively, "Plaintiffs") are suing Sirius XM Radio, Inc. ("Sirius") and Pandora Media, Inc. ("Pandora") (collectively, "Defendants") for their unauthorized and unlawful use of sound recordings initially created before February 15, 1972 (the “Pre-1972 Recordings” or the “Recordings”).

3. Defendants have violated and continue to violate Plaintiffs’ rights under Illinois law through the marketing, sale, and provision of satellite and internet radio services that include Pre-1972 Recordings. This practice unjustly enriches Defendants at the expense of Plaintiffs and class members.

4. Defendants must pay royalties for the use of sound recordings created on or after February 15, 1972, which are copyrighted under the Copyright Act of 1976 (the “Copyright Act” or the “Act”). The Act does not, however, extend federal copyright to sound recordings created before February 15, 1972, but specifically provides that states remain free to create remedies for unauthorized use of those Pre-1972 Recordings.

5. Despite their widespread public performance and reproduction of Pre-1972 Recordings protected by state law, Defendants have failed to obtain authorization and pay royalties.

6. Pre-1972 sound recordings redefined popular music in America. Defendants have earned substantial revenue by creating, marketing, and selling subscriptions and advertisements in connection with radio services featuring Pre-1972 Recordings owned by Plaintiffs. But despite the fact that Defendants profit handsomely by advertising and offering these sound recordings to the public, they unlawfully fail to arrange for permission to use (for compensation or otherwise) the sound recordings.

7. Defendants’ conduct violates Plaintiffs’ rights under Illinois common law prohibitions of misappropriation, conversion, and unjust enrichment. Plaintiffs seek, on behalf of themselves and a class of similarly situated rightsholders, compensation from Defendants as well as injunctive relief for violations of Plaintiffs' rights flowing from the unauthorized and uncompensated use of the Pre-1972 Recordings.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1322(d), because at least one class member is of diverse citizenship from Defendants, there are more than 100 class members, and the aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000.

9. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Plaintiffs because Plaintiffs submit to this Court's jurisdiction. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants mass-solicit Illinois customers through their interactive websites www.pandora.com and www.siriusxm.com and on-air advertising. Defendants' internet and satellite radio services are well known and popular in the District. Defendants frequently violate Illinois law to the detriment of Plaintiffs, class members, and listeners, as detailed below, by publicly performing Pre-1972 Recordings in Illinois without arranging or paying royalties.

10. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred and/or emanated from this District and Defendants have caused harm to Plaintiffs and class members residing in this District.

III. PARTIES

11. Plaintiff Arthur Sheridan is a citizen of Illinois and record producer who owns the intellectual property and contract rights in numerous pre-1972 master recordings.

12. Plaintiff Barbara Sheridan is a citizen of Illinois and owns the intellectual property and contract rights in a pre-1972 master recording.

13. Defendant Pandora Media, Inc., is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Oakland, California. Pandora Media, Inc. owns and operates an internet radio service as alleged throughout this Complaint.

14. Defendant SiriusXM Radio Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York. SiriusXM Radio Inc. owns and operates satellite and internet radio services as alleged throughout this Complaint.

15. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of the Misappropriation Class as defined below.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Arthur and Barbara Sheridan

16. In the 1950s and 1960s, Arthur Sheridan owned and operated several recording companies specializing in recording and selling doo-wop, jazz, and rhythm and blues music. These music labels produced recordings by some of the most influential musicians of the era, including the Flamingos (inducted to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2001), Little Walter (inducted to the Blues Hall of Fame in 1986 and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2008), and the Moonglows (inducted to the Vocal Group Hall of Fame in 1999 and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2000).

17. Arthur Sheridan owns many pre-1972 master recordings, including but not limited to the following fixtures of jazz, blues, and doo-wop music: “Slow Down Woman,” “The Mojo,” “I Want my Baby,” and “How Can I Leave” by J.B. Lenoir; “That’s my Desire” and “You Ain’t Ready” by the Flamingos; “Evening Sun” by Johnny Shines; “Love is a Pain,” “No Need of Your Crying,” “I Had a Feeling,” and “Meet Me Baby” by Rudy Greene; “Nervous Wreck” and “No More Love” by Willie Nix; “Just a Lonely Christmas,” “Whistle My Love,” “Baby Please,” and “Hey Santa Claus” by the Moonglows; “She Is Going to Ruin Me” and “I Can’t Stand Being Away From You” by T-Bone Walker; “I Just Keep Loving Her” by Little Walter; “Merry Lee,” “Down Home,” “Sweet and Lovely,” and “The Talk of the Town” by Howard McGhee; “High and Lonesome” and “Roll and Rhumba” by Jimmy Reed; and “Warm Summer Breezes” and “Heartbreaker” by Dee Clarke.

18. Barbara Sheridan owns the pre-1972 master sound recording of “Golden Teardrops” by the Flamingos, critically acclaimed when it was recorded and still regarded as a classic.

19. Arthur and Barbara Sheridan own the intellectual property and contract rights associated with the recordings. These rights include, without limitation, the right to control the use and distribution of the recording to promote the recordings, and the right to receive royalty payments from the exploitation of the master recordings described above.

20. Arthur and Barbara Sheridan continue to market the Pre-1972 Recordings that they own. In particular, Arthur and Barbara Sheridan continue to receive revenue from licenses granted to third parties to publicly perform the recordings.

B. Defendants Exploit Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ Rights Without Permission or Compensation

1. State Law Protection for Pre-1972 Recordings

21. The Copyright Act creates a federal statutory licensing scheme pursuant to which satellite and internet radio companies such as Defendants are required to pay royalties for the public performance of sound recordings protected by the Act. See 17 U.S.C. §§ 112(e), 114(d)(2), 114(f). The companies pay these royalties to SoundExchange, a nonprofit entity established by regulation for the collection and distribution of royalty payments under this scheme.

22. The statutory licensing scheme provided by 17 U.S.C. §§ 112(e), 114(d)(2), and 114(f) does not extend to Pre-1972 Recordings. Thus, SoundExchange's authority does not extend to the collection and distribution of royalty payments to the owners of copyrights in Pre-1972 Recordings. See 17 U.S.C. § 114(g)(2) (requiring SoundExchange to distribute royalties to holders of federal copyrights). The existence of SoundExchange does not alter the issues presented in this action because SoundExchange has no authority to negotiate or collect royalties on behalf of copyright holders for the reproduction and public performance of Pre-1972 Recordings.

23. The Copyright Act specifically provides that Pre-1972 Recordings will not be subject to federal copyright. 17 U.S.C. § 301(c). But nothing in the Copyright Act permits entities such as Defendants to make use of Pre-1972 Recordings without compensation. Indeed, the Copyright Act specifically left states free to regulate the use of works of authorship that it chose not to render subject to federal law. 17 U.S.C. § 301(b)(1).

24. Illinois common law protects Pre-1972 Recordings from being copied, distributed, or otherwise exploited without license or authorization.

2. Sirius XM

25. Sirius offers satellite and internet music services consisting of almost 1000 different "channels" distinguished by type of content and ranging across music, sports, and news.

26. Sirius is a highly profitable company that derives substantial revenue from the intellectual property embodied in the music it plays and in its marketing of that music.

27. A substantial number of Sirius channels are devoted exclusively to music, with many of these music channels featuring Pre-1972 Recordings. Indeed, Sirius channels 3 through 9 currently feature decade-specific music playlists featuring only Pre-1972 Recordings, including

“40s on 4,” “50s on 5,” and “60s on 6.”

28. Users purchase access to Sirius channels in the form of various subscription packages, which allow access to Sirius channels using either a satellite radio receiver or an internet device such as a computer, digital media device, tablet, or smartphone. Sirius’s services also permit users to download and replay tracks that have been performed on a particular channel, download particular sound recordings, access and replay specific portions of sound recordings, and download specific sound recordings as part of an “On Demand” feature.

29. Sirius’s music services are delivered by way of satellite and web interfaces which promote Sirius’s services or are designed to attract users and subscribers to Sirius’s services.

30. Sirius regularly broadcasts to listeners the “Golden Teardrops” recording and other recordings listed above, as well as many other Pre-1972 Recordings, and has done so repeatedly for the last several years.

31. Sirius has not licensed Pre-1972 Recordings from their copyright owners.

32. In the course of broadcasting satellite and internet radio services that feature Pre-1972 Recordings, Sirius reproduces those Recordings multiple times for purposes of archiving, advertising, buffering, streaming, and otherwise maintaining, accessing, and performing the Recordings.

33. Generally, Sirius’s subscription packages require users to pay monthly fees—currently, $14.99 or $19.99 per month—which generate significant revenues for Sirius.

34. Sirius advertises that its music services, both satellite and internet, can be accessed throughout the United States, including Illinois. As of the end of 2014, Sirius reports having over 27.3 million subscribers, millions of whom, on information and belief, are located in Illinois.

35. In the context of rate-setting proceedings for the statutory licensing scheme associated with federal copyrights, Sirius has sought to justify an exclusion of revenue that it attributed to Pre-1972 Recordings in its calculation of statutory royalty payments to SoundExchange.

36. But Sirius also has not separately licensed Pre-1972 Recordings from Plaintiffs or other Class Members who own the rights to reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, and otherwise exploit the Recordings.

37. Thus, without obtaining authorization or rendering compensation, Sirius has reproduced and publicly performed Pre-1972 Recordings created and/or owned by Plaintiffs and other Class Members, deriving significant benefits—including millions of dollars in annual revenue—from its unlawful use of their recordings.

3. Pandora Internet Radio

38. Pandora offers internet radio services in the form of customizable music “stations” that stream music to users on the internet. Many Pandora stations feature, in whole or in part, Pre-1972 Recordings.

39. Pandora offers its services to the public on both a subscription and non-subscription basis. Users without a subscription hear advertisements at periodic intervals between tracks, and may skip only six tracks per station per hour (and twelve tracks total per day) across all stations. Users with a subscription are promised “ad-free listening” and may skip a greater number of tracks per day. Users can access Pandora on a variety of internet platforms including computers, digital media devices, tablets, and smartphones.

40. Pandora’s internet music service is delivered by way of web interfaces which promote Pandora’s services or are designed to attract users and subscribers to Pandora’s services.

41. Pandora regularly broadcasts to listeners the “Golden Teardrops” recording and other recordings listed above, as well as many other Pre-1972 Recordings, and has done so repeatedly for the last several years.

42. Pandora has not licensed Pre-1972 Recordings from their copyright owners.

43. Pandora offers users a choice between monthly and yearly subscriptions. In either case, subscribers pay a periodic fee for the use of Pandora’s service. Pandora currently offers paid subscriptions at $54.89 per year, or $4.99 per month.

44. Pandora also sells the right to advertise to users on its stations, websites, and applications.

45. Pandora’s internet radio service can be accessed throughout the United States, including Illinois. As of 2015, Pandora reports having over 250 million registered users of its internet music service. Pandora further reports over 3.3 million paying subscribers. Upon information and belief, millions of Pandora users and hundreds of thousands of paying Pandora subscribers are located in Illinois.

46. Sales of subscriptions and advertisements generate millions of dollars of revenue for Pandora each year.

47. In the course of broadcasting internet radio services that feature Pre-1972 Recordings, Pandora reproduces those Recordings multiple times for purposes of archiving, advertising, buffering, streaming, and otherwise maintaining, accessing, and performing the Recordings.

48. But despite the fact that Pandora’s service includes Pre-1972 Recordings, and despite the fact that Plaintiffs and other Class Members own the rights to reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, and otherwise exploit the Recordings—Pandora has not paid for a license to use the Recordings.

49. Thus, without obtaining authorization or rendering compensation, Pandora has reproduced and publicly performed Pre-1972 Recordings created and/or owned by Plaintiffs and other Class Members, deriving significant benefits—including millions of dollars in annual revenue—from its unlawful use of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' sound recordings.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

50. Plaintiffs Arthur and Barbara Sheridan bring this action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2) and (b)(3) on their own behalf and on behalf of the following class of plaintiffs (the "Misappropriation Class"):

All owners of reproduction and public performance rights in Pre-1972 Recordings that have been publicly performed, copied, or otherwise exploited by Defendants, without a license or other authorization, in the marketing, sale, and provision of satellite and internet radio services.

51. The persons in the Misappropriation Class are so numerous that individual joinder of all members is impracticable under the circumstances of this case. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, the exact size of the Misappropriation Class is easily ascertainable, as each class member can be identified by using Defendants' records. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that there are many thousands of Misappropriation Class members.

52. There are common questions of law and fact specific to the Misappropriation Class that predominate over any questions affecting individual members, including:

- (a) Whether Defendants copy, publicly perform, or otherwise exploit Pre-1972 Recordings in their satellite and internet radio services without authorization or permission;
- (b) Whether such uses are unlawful;
- (c) Whether Defendants' conduct constitutes misappropriation;

- (d) Whether Defendants' conduct violates 815 ILCS 510/1 et seq.;
- (e) Whether Defendants' conduct constitutes conversion;
- (f) Whether class members have been damaged by Defendants' conduct, and the amount of such damages;
- (g) Whether punitive damages are appropriate and the amount of such damages;
- (h) Whether an order enjoining future unauthorized use of Pre-1972 Recordings in satellite and internet radio services is appropriate and on what terms;
- (i) Whether Defendants have been unjustly enriched; and
- (j) Whether Defendants should disgorge their unlawful profits, and the amount of such profits.

53. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the Misappropriation Class's claims, as they arise out of the same course of conduct and the same legal theories as the rest of the Misappropriation Class, and Plaintiffs challenge the practices and course of conduct engaged in by Defendants with respect to the Misappropriation Class as a whole.

54. Excluded from the class are Defendants, their employees, co-conspirators, officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs, successors, and wholly or partly owned subsidiaries or affiliated companies; class counsel and their employees; and the judicial officers and associated court staff assigned to this case.

55. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. They will vigorously pursue the claims and have no antagonistic conflicts. Plaintiffs have retained counsel who are able and experienced class action litigators and are familiar with representing plaintiffs in large-scale copyright, trademark, and right of publicity claims.

56. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, and final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate respecting the class as a whole. A class action is also appropriate because Defendants have acted and refused to take steps that are, upon information and belief, generally applicable to thousands of individuals, thereby making injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

57. Questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. Resolution of this action on a class-wide basis is superior to other available methods and is a fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy because in the context of this litigation most class members cannot justify the commitment of the large financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit against Defendants. Separate actions by individual class members would also create a risk of inconsistent or varying judgments, which could establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants and substantially impede or impair the ability of class members to pursue their claims. It is not anticipated that there would be difficulties in managing this case as a class action.

58. Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend all class allegations as appropriate, and to request any state law subclasses or other subclasses if necessary, upon completion of class-related discovery and motions for class certification.

COUNT I (Common Law Copyright Infringement)

59. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

60. The Pre-1972 Recordings, when created, were novel creative works, and were reduced to concrete form when recorded; Plaintiffs and the Misappropriation Class thus have property rights in them as recognized by Illinois common law.

61. By duplicating the Pre-1972 Recordings without authorization from Plaintiffs and Class Members, and publicly performing those Recordings to their users for their own gain, Defendants misappropriated the Recordings and infringed Plaintiffs' and Class Members' property rights, whereby Plaintiffs and Class Members were damaged.

62. As a result of Defendants' misappropriation of the Pre-1972 Recordings, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to an order enjoining Defendants from continuing to use those recordings without authorization and compensation, and to an order imposing a constructive trust on any money acquired by means of Defendants' misappropriation, including all gross receipts attributable to Defendants' misappropriation of the Pre-1972 Recordings.

63. Defendants' conduct, as described above, constituted a continuous and intentional pattern of misappropriation of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' property, justifying the imposition of punitive damages. Defendants are high-profile, large-scale media companies that are intimately familiar with the mechanics of the music industry and the requirements of intellectual property law. By knowingly misappropriating works without their owners' permission and performing these works to millions of users of satellite and internet radio services, Defendants acted and continue to act maliciously and oppressively to injure Plaintiffs and Class Members by depriving them of compensation for the use of the Pre-1972 Recordings. Defendants' continued misappropriation of the Pre-1972 Recordings was at a minimum done with reckless disregard of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' rights in those Recordings.

COUNT II
(Violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS 510/1 et seq.)

64. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

65. Defendants have used and continue to use the Pre-1972 Recordings for the commercial purposes of advertising Defendants' satellite and internet radio services; providing those radio services; selling subscriptions and advertisements in connection with those radio services; and/or advertising and selling other products and services.

66. Defendants' use of the Recordings and/or identities creates a likelihood of confusion or misunderstanding and represents implicitly that the radio services have the approval of Plaintiffs and Class Members for the use of their Recordings.

67. As a result of Defendants' misappropriation of the Pre-1972 Recordings, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to an order enjoining Defendants from continuing to use those recordings without authorization and compensation, and to an order imposing a constructive trust on any money acquired by means of Defendants' misappropriation, including all gross receipts attributable to Defendants' misappropriation of the Pre-1972 Recordings.

68. Defendants are high-profile, large-scale media companies, intimately familiar with the mechanics of the music industry and the law governing its actions as described above. Defendants' actions, as described herein constitute willful engagement in a deceptive trade practice, making an award of attorneys' fees and costs appropriate under the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

COUNT III (Conversion)

69. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

70. As alleged above, and as recognized under Illinois law, Plaintiffs and Class Members have property rights in the Pre-1972 Recordings, including the right to control the public performance and reproduction of the Pre-1972 Recordings.

71. By duplicating the Pre-1972 Recordings without authorization from Plaintiffs and Class Members, and publicly performing those Recordings to their users for their own gain, Defendants wrongfully assumed control over Plaintiffs' and Class Members' property and exercised that control in a manner inconsistent with Plaintiffs' and Class Members' property rights.

COUNT IV
(Unjust Enrichment)

72. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

73. To the detriment and impoverishment of Plaintiffs and the Class, Defendants have been and continue to be unjustly enriched as a result of the unlawful and/or wrongful conduct alleged herein. Defendants have unjustly benefitted through the sale of subscriptions and advertisements in connection with satellite and internet radio services that use without authorization the Pre-1972 Recordings. Defendants have therefore benefitted from the use of Pre-1972 Recordings.

74. Defendants' wrongful conduct has no justification and violates the fundamental principles of justice, equity, and good conscience. It would be unjust for Defendants to retain the benefits attained by their unlicensed and wrongful use of the Plaintiffs' Recordings. Because Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law, Plaintiffs seek, on behalf of themselves and the Misappropriation Class, full restitution of Defendants' enrichment, benefits, and ill-gotten gains acquired as a result of the unlawful and/or wrongful conduct alleged herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

75. WHEREFORE, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Misappropriation Class, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a) Certification of the action as a Class Action pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and appointment of Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives and their counsel of record as Class Counsel;

- b) Actual damages, punitive damages, and such other relief as provided by the statutes and common law cited herein;
- c) Disgorgement of all profits earned by Defendants from copying, publicly performing, and otherwise exploiting Pre-1972 Recordings in satellite and internet radio services;
- d) A constructive trust on any money acquired by means of Defendants' conversion, including all gross receipts attributable to Defendants' conversion of the Pre-1972 Recordings;
- e) Prejudgment and post-judgment interest on any monetary relief;
- f) Equitable relief enjoining future unauthorized use of Pre-1972 Recordings in satellite and internet radio services;
- g) The costs of bringing this suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- h) All other relief to which Plaintiffs and class members may be entitled at law or in equity.
